

People Confidential: Exclusive & Intimate Dining and Development Events for Leaders

People Confidential is an event for those who feel the need to step away from the coal face and connect with other busy professionals facing similar challenges.

Refresh, Refuel, Reflect and Resolve

The day to day operations of your company can be all-consuming. It can be difficult to see the solutions to the most testing problems when you are so close.

Equal Talent recognises that as a leader, you and your business would benefit greatly from the opportunity to simply stop and take stock. This experience becomes more powerful when facilitated by a qualified, specialist coach and is done in the company of other leaders who are able to offer different perspectives.

We are Equal Talent, we are experienced in developing established and aspiring leaders to create more inclusive cultures. By doing so companies are able to create a space for their people to thrive, for innovation, creativity and real significant, sustainable growth.

We invite you to carve the time out of your busy schedule, to gift yourself the opportunity to re-energise at this two-hour relaxed intervention group and private dining experience.

We are passionate about People Confidential because we believe you already have the answers to move your business forward and have a bigger impact. We believe that enabling and supporting leaders like you to reflect, you will be able to look at the daily challenges you face with fresh eyes and from a new angle. This often leads to the birth of innovative solutions.

We created People Confidential because we recognise the advantages of a hivemind. Those who attend our exclusive events all face unique challenges and experiences in their daily lives. This allows them to show up and present a different outlook to common problems.

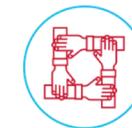

No one is expected to simultaneously agree all the time, in fact, this passive connection would be counterproductive. Participants are encouraged to challenge and explore in the spirit of enquiry. This can only happen effectively when all those who attend feel relaxed enough to be open and honest which is why confidentiality is part of the contract for all those who attend.

What to expect

- A delicious, nurturing two-course meal
- A private dining space at a restaurant venue in your city of work
- An open and frank discussion on leadership topics including boundaries, adaptability, impostor syndrome and resilience.
- A unique, deeper networking experience
- Leadership development discussion led by a qualified executive coach
- A calming and simultaneously inspiring environment
- An opportunity to refresh, refuel and reflect and identify actions that will inform the growth of your business

A seat at the exclusive table is only £100 and places are limited to 12.

People Confidential is inspired by the Intelligencia Club, a thriving community of 300+ curious and courageous business leaders, founders and entrepreneurs. It was founded in 2015 by Amanda Davie, one of the valued Equal Talent directors.
